"Together they join the soothing tranquil tones of the cedar flute with piano and keyboards to create songs as musical prayers and meditations in time honored Native tradition." -Canyon Records

"I am pleased to write this letter of support for Mr. Calvin Standing Bear and hope that you will seriously consider supporting his work."

- Nora Robinson, Education Director, Colorado Symphony Orchestra

Their music can be heard while walking through the grand concourse A at the Denver International Airport. Continuous invitations have been extended from the city of Denver & the Colorado Performing Arts Council.

"Since 1996, Red Tail Chasing Hawks played a big part in the success of the Rocky Mountain Indian Festivals.

We highly recommend Calvin and James to help make your event peaceful and memorable. Their "Music for the Spirit" mesmerizes & pleases everyone."

-Rocky Mountain Indian Festival Committee
